TSI 2024
August 11-18, 2024

The TRIUMF Summer Institute (TSI2024) will take place from August 11-18 at TRIUMF, Vancouver. This school precedes the NN2024 conference and is thought to give students and young researchers a deeper introduction into some of the topics of the conference. There will be transport organized for TSI participants and lecturers from Vancouver to the NN2024 in Whistler on August 18. More information will be available soon.
